

NEZ PERCE & ASOTIN COUNTY ECONOMY – FISCAL YEAR 2018

“Lewis-Clark State College represents one of the primary economic pillars of the Lewis-Clark Valley, providing workforce training and advanced human capital for all industries in the region and enhancing the quality of life of every resident.”

3,600+
STUDENTS SERVED

32 countries
28 states
With over 90% placement rates

548
FULL & PART-TIME
FACULTY & STAFF

LC State spends $51M on operations

123,328
VISITORS

attend campus events, including 37,000
visitors from outside local economy

SCHWEITZER CTE CENTER IMPACT

$17.1M

Construction of the $24.5M center supports 200 jobs locally, and contributes $817,475 in state and local taxes

STUDENT SPENDING IMPACT
$7.4M

Supports 101
jobs locally

LC STATE SPENDING IMPACT
$61.1M

Supports 884
jobs locally

VISITOR IMPACT
$5.8M

Supports 159
jobs locally

WORKFORCE IMPACT 23,000+

individuals in the current workforce have received some form of educational training at LC State

HUMAN CAPITAL IMPACT
$44.1M

LC State increases the knowledge and productivity of the LC Valley's workforce.
These gains support an additional 689 jobs with wages and benefits of over $49,000

ATHLETICS IMPACT
$12.4M

including $4.5M from visitors. Supports 171 jobs directly, increasing to 239 jobs including the multiplier effects

FISCAL TAX CONTRIBUTIONS
$5.3M

LC State increases the tax base of the local economy and protects the residents from higher tax rates

TOTAL IMPACT

in gross regional product
(GRP) and sustained employment locally.

$118,400,000
1,833 JOBS

The fiscal year 2018 Lewis-Clark State College economic impact study was prepared by Steve Peterson, a regional economist who has conducted over 100 economic impact assessments in his career on nearly every major industry in Idaho's economy. He is currently employed at the University of Idaho as a Clinical Associate Professor of Economics.