

ARE YOU CONSIDERING APPLYING FOR A DOCTORAL PROGRAM? NOT SURE WHICH PROGRAM IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

Guiding Initiatives for Doctoral Education

The Guiding Initiatives for Doctoral Education (GuIDE) is a program to guide and support nurses moving forward with personal and professional career development. The GuIDE seminar series offers four (4) 90-minute interactive online sessions with expert faculty to demystify the doctoral nursing program process.

- How to choose the optimal doctoral program/university for you
- "Must-Do's" to maximize your application strengths
- Impact of strong mentorship teams
- Balancing family/work/school demands

Sponsored by the Oregon Health & Science University School of Nursing

CLICK HERE TO APPLY FOR THIS FREE PROGRAM

PAST PARTICIPANTS HAVE SAID:

"Loved it!! The whole topic was broken down into manageable pieces to help process a very serious life altering decision."

"I left there feeling as if the mental barriers to furthering my education were beginning to lift."

"The most valuable elements were, the availability of the faculty, and the sense of community created among the attendees."

Session #1: JUNE 3, 10, 17, 24
application deadline
5-15-21

OR Session #2: JULY
8, 15, 22, 29
application deadline
6-15-21

7:30-9:00pm PST

Contact Kate Wildeck with questions
wildeck@ohsu.edu

The program is led by

Laura A. Taylor, PhD, RN, ANEF, FAAN
www.guidetodegree.com