Member Information

What Is AmeriCorps?

AmeriCorps State & National members engage in a diverse range of service projects at local, regional, and national levels including:

- Organizing to address critical community needs of disaster services
- Addressing economic opportunity
- Providing education
- Helping ensure healthy futures
- Delivering environmental stewardship
- Providing opportunities for veterans and military families

Idaho HealthCorps' Mission

- To help improve health care access throughout Idaho by educating community members in rural areas about health-related topics.
- Members provide health screenings, access to food, and connect community members to local services and resources.
- This program has provided hundreds of health profession students and other community members with professional development opportunities, hands on learning and, education awards (similar to a scholarship).

AmeriCorps is a Force Multiplier in Idaho

AmeriCorps at ISU has a demonstrated track record. Our members increase access to care, address specific health factors, and help Idahoans live longer, healthier and happier lives. They also represent their sites, serving as ambassadors across the state.
